

OTTER TALES

Newsletter of the Greater Boston Labrador Retriever Club

July/August 1998

From the Editor's Desk

I hope everyone and all their Labradors are enjoying their summer. The 1998 LRCGB has come and gone. The weather was almost perfect, holding off most of the rain until the end of Best of Breed. Congratulations to all participants. For those of you who received your first breed ribbon, tuck it away for someday you'll look back at it and think, here's where I started.

My message to you as editor is to treat others as you would like to be treated. I have resigned at committee chair of the Bench Committee after being told by a club member to shut up and listen to her. This behavior has been exhibited by more than one club member at meetings and this is why I am bringing it to your attention.

Our club has also gotten some very negative publicity through the Internet regarding friendliness of members, helping new Labrador owners feeling wanted. This is a two part problem and two part solution.

To new Labrador owners, please take a moment and think before approaching any one at a function.

Questions to ask yourself are:

Is this person I wish to speak with hurrying to get in the ring, getting a dog ready for the ring, bringing a dog back from the ring, getting water for his/her dogs, getting the dog ready to go to line, etc. Does it appear this person has time to talk now? If so approach the person; if not, come back at a later time.

To the club members I ask that each of you think about when you were new to the breed and how you wished you had someone to answer questions for you. Please respond to new owners, even if they didn't purchase their Labrador from you, as though you were they. If it's not a good time, say so and suggest they speak with you at a later time or point out someone else they can speak with.

We were all new to the breed once and so eager to learn and like sponges to absorb all we saw and heard.

Thanks to those member who took the time to send in information to the newsletter. Be sure to read the happy ending for a Rescue Lab - Jet.

Last issue I challenged all club members to donate $5.00 to the Anne Mugglestone Trust. Thank you to the 14 of over 300 members who did. A disappointing percentage. I only pray that at no time in this memberships' lifetimes that you are ever in need. A greater percentage of my new puppy buyers donated to the fund. I put a xerox copy of the latest newsletter in each of my puppy packages and was surprised that donations came from them. I did so hope our club would be the example for the other clubs around the country. If anyone would still like to make a donation, please send your donations made out to "Ann Mugglestone in Trust" and mail to Peggy Land, 26 Theodore Drive, Leominster, MA 01453. Peggy will then forward our donation onto the Trust which has been established in Canada to help Anne.

Articles, notes, letters, etc. can be sent to me by e-mail to Wendy.McNaughton@digital.com. Microsoft Word would be nice! Hard copy to 156 Barker Hill Rd., Townsend, MA 01469.

Litter ads ($5.00) and brags (each brag $1.00) will be accepted and a newsletter will be sent out every 2 months. The deadlines for input to the newsletter are 5/20, 7/17, 9/18 and 11/20. This time frame will allow me time to set up and get the newsletter to the printer and mailed to you to be received around the 15th of the following month or sooner if I have everything earlier.

In order to defray the cost of the newsletter to the Club and also to give you the opportunity to advertise your dogs, dog related items you might sell, etc., I would like to offer you inexpensive advertising. Full page ads of your dog including a scanable picture will be $25.00. Wording must be kept to approximately 6 lines or you may send a camera ready page of what ever you wish. Ads for dog related items would be by the inch - 2" of print for $5.00. Business card - $10.00/4-6 issues.

Letters to the editor--pro and con will be published. I challenge all of you to send in a contribution to this newsletter. I look forward to hearing from you and receiving your input.

Wendy

Doggy Dictionary - submitted by Ellen Brinker

LEASH: A strap which attaches to your collar, enabling you to lead your person where you want him/her to go

DOG BED: Any soft, clean surface, such as the white bedspread in the guest room or the newly upholstered couch in the living room

DROOL: What you do when your person has food and you don't. To do this properly you must sit as close as you can and look sad and let the drool fall to the floor or better yet, onto their laps.

SNIFF: A social custom to use when you greet other dogs. Place your nose as close as you can to the other dog's read end and inhale deeply, repeat several times, or until your person makes you stop.

GARBAGE CAN: A container which your neighbor puts out once a week to test your ingenuity. You must stand on your hind legs and try to push the lid off with your nose. If you do it right, you are rewarded with margarine wrappers to shred, beef bones to consume and moldy crusts of bred.

BICYCLES: Two-wheeled exercise machines invented for dogs to control body fat. To get maximum aerobic benefit, you must hide behind a bush and dash out, bark loudly and run along side for a few yards; the person then swerves and falls into the bushes and you prance away.

DEAFNESS: This is a malady which affects dogs when their person want them in and they want to stay out. Symptoms include staring blankly at the person then running in the opposite direction or lying down.

THUNDER: This is a signal that the world is coming to an end. Humans remain amazingly calm during thunderstorms, so it is necessary to warn them of the danger by trebling uncontrollably, panting, rolling your eyes wildly, and following at their heels.

WASTEBASKET: This is a dog toy filled with paper, envelopes, and old candy wrapper. When you get bored, turn over the basket and strew the papers all over the house until your person comes home.

SOFAS: Are to dogs like napkins are to people. After eating it is polite to run up and down the front of the sofa and wipe your whiskers clean.

BATH: This is a process by which the humans drench the floor, walls and themselves. You can help by shaking vigorously and frequently.

LEAN: Every good dog's response to the command "sit," especially if your person is dressed for an evening out. Incredibly effective before black-tie events.

What is Labrador Retriever Rescue, Inc.?

Labrador Retriever Rescue, Inc. is a non-profit organization dedicated to placing Labrador Retrievers in suitable, loving homes. Our Labs are purebred dogs who for various reasons are turned over to us in hope that they will find a new home and life. The Labs come from various sources--families, breeders, shelters and veterinarians. The Labs are evaluated in terms of health, temperament, age and training. Our volunteers carefully screen all potential homes and attempt to match a person or family's needs and lifestyle to the particular needs of the Rescue Lab.

Jet-- A Labrador Retriever Rescue Success Story

Jet was a three year old, neutered, black, male Lab that came in to Lab Rescue with a special talent of retrieving live squirrels. He was well socialized with children and dogs and loved going for rides in the car. Jet was adopted by one of our home studied Lab Rescue families. The family has written to LRR just to let us know how wonderful things worked out. Here is their testimonial.

When we submitted our application to Lab Rescue we were sure we wanted a female chocolate Lab. We got a call a week later that there was a male black Lab for adoption, if we would like to meet him. Our family piled into the car one day after a huge snowstorm and drove to New Hampshire to meet Jet. Jet seemed a little distracted; he must have been wondering where his master, that he must of loved, was. We learned that he had been an "outside" dog and we were a little apprehensive as we were looking for an "inside" family dog. We decided to give it a go. It was the BEST DECISION OUR FAMILY EVER MADE!!! He completed a basic training class shortly after we adopted him, where he was named the "Push Button Dog". He has made our home his home including the sofa, bed and anywhere that my husband is. He loves to go for rides in the tow truck, Jet is very fond of camping; we camp all summer. He is such a wonderfully, happy dog and loved by all who meet him. I can't imagine a dog more suited to us or we to him. He is a blessing sent by God.

This letter is a fine example as to how flexible, open minded and committed this family was to adopting a Lab from Lab Rescue.

How can you help Labrador Retriever Rescue?

Lab Rescue is run exclusively on the time, energy and money volunteered by many caring people. We are a small group; and as we grow, we find the tasks outnumber volunteers. We hear so many people ask, "What can I do to help?" It's hard to always take the time to find someone new to do a job when you are not sure who has the qualifications, time or desire; so we usually just end up overloading the folks who have volunteered in the past; because we know their capabilities and expertise.

However, there are several areas of crucial concern now for which we need volunteers. If any of the following jobs appeal to you or if you feel there is some area where you have specific expertise, please call the hotline at 978-356-2982 or drop us a line at LRR, P.O. Box 73 Hamilton, MA 01936. We will be happy to discuss, in detail, any volunteer tasks and determine how best you may help LRR.

1. Transport of dogs - To transport a Lab, usually from a shelter in your area to our kennel in southern New Hampshire, this can involve the entire trip or just a leg of the trip to meet another volunteer helping with the transport.
2. Dog evaluation - This is one of the hardest jobs as you must be prepared to be very honest in your evaluation of the dog(s). If the dog is poorly socialized, aggressive, or a mixed breed, to name just a few, we cannot take the dog into our program. Your honest evaluation helps our efforts be channeled in a positive direction right from the start.
3. Fostering of a LRR Lab - We need "home" situations to foster Labs if we need to find out more about the Lab. The information we can gather from having a dog in a home atmosphere instead of a kennel is invaluable in trying to make a good match for a new home. We need volunteers who are willing to allow a Lab into their home to train and socialize. Volunteers must be also willing to have a selected LRR family visit and interact in order to adopt the Lab.
4. Home studies - Volunteers are needed to review potential homes. These people have applied to Lab Rescue and need to be home studied to see if a Lab could successfully be placed in their home.

Fostering - a great way to Feel good about your self. Help a Lab to get new home.

Volunteer your time and/or home.

If you are not part of the solution, you are part of the problem.

Find out if you really want a second Labrador.
